

PHYSICALLY SEPARATE BUSINESSES	Facilities housing dogs, cats, or nonhuman primates must be physically separated from other businesses on the same premises. [3.1(b), 3.75(b)]
Examples	Other businesses include, but are not limited to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • contract pound • another dealer on the same property • retail sales of other animals • boarding kennel • grooming parlor • veterinary hospital • training facility • hunting dog dealers/trainers NOTE: Research facilities licensed as dealers are exempt from this requirement.
Criteria	Examples of physical separation include, but are not limited to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • solid wall between the businesses in the same building • divider/barrier of sufficient height to denote a clear separation between businesses • fence (perimeter) not part of primary enclosure • separate entrances into separate animal areas in same building • separate buildings • restricted access between businesses • no common walls